THE SUSTAINABLE EDGE

The East Kentucky Chapter of AIA and the Bluegrass Chapter of CSI invite you, Wednesday June 3, 2009 at The Campbell House Crowne Plaza, to join us for an informative day about sustainable design.

Morning and afternoon seminars will illustrate sustainable design topics and present information about House Bill 2. A panel discussion, with leaders and experts in sustainable design, will discuss High Performance issues, LEED and Sustainable Construction.

A Trade Show held during lunch will give you the opportunity to interact with product representatives. We are in the process of pre-registering the seminars, including "Construction Jeopardy" during lunch, to be worth a total of 7 HSW/SD Continuing Education credits.

Presenters include:

Joe Rey-Barreau, IES

Concepts in "Green" and Sustainable Lighting

Associate Professor at the University of Kentucky's College of Design
Director of Education for the American Lighting Association

Paul Kaplan
